ACCOUNT ACCESS

I signed up for a subscription, however I still have not received my credentials - what should I do?

If you signed up for an account after business hours (Monday - Friday 7am-5pm EST) or during a holiday, please note that you will receive your credentials at the start of the following business day by 9am EST. If you do not receive the credentials, please reach out to us directly thetradexchange@thetradexchange.com or at (203) 939-1250.

I am not receiving the daily analytics to my email such as the Morning Mash-Up and the Market Wrap-Up. What should I do?

If you are a member and you are not receiving the analytics, please check your spam and be sure to white list our emails. If you still experience issues please email us directly at thetradexchange@thetradexchange.com and we will work to rectify the issue immediately.

TRADEXCHANGE

Do you cover international markets?

At this time we solely cover US markets, however we may look to expand our platform in the near future.

Do you have an app?

Yes we have apps for android and IOS devices. *Please note that our Squawk Audio is currently hosted through Omnivia which has been reported to cause issues on IOS devices. Omnivia is actively working to resolve this issue.

Do you provide guidance or recommendations?

No, we are strictly a real time news provider. We provided actionable information to traders so that they can make trading decisions based on their experience, values and needs.

Is your information in real-time and unbiased?

All of our information is in real time. No one at The TradeXchange is permitted to trade so none of our NewsDesk employees will front run you for their benefit or put out biased information.

What type of information is provided in the NewsDesk?

We provide real time, actionable information for US markets regarding: unusual option activity, insider and company SEC filings, smart filtered social media news, volatility and volume alerts, geo-political information, macroeconomic news and much more.

NEWSDESK

The platform looks like a chat, am I allowed to post?

No, only TX NewsDesk employees and contributors are allowed to post on the platform. Our team is highly experienced and follows a unique process to ensure a high accuracy and integrity of posted updates.

Can I filter the Information?

No, at this time the NewsDesk nor Forum are capable of filtering information.

The font is too large/small in the NewsDesk / Forum, is it possible to adjust the font size?

Yes! To adjust the font size in either the NewsDesk or the Forum, simply hold down the CTRL button on your keyboard and press the + or - sign on your keyboard to increase or decrease the size of the font.

How do I access the search tool in the TX NewsDesk?

To perform a search in the NewsDesk, click on the  icon in the bottom left-hand corner of the NewsDesk. From this menu, select "History" to open the search tool.

Please note that the search tool will only pull data from the same day. We anticipate this issue to be resolved with the release of our new dashboard in early 2018.*

What do the colors in the NewsDesk Mean?

Any postings in RED represent unusual option activity. Postings in PINK represent SEC filings such as Form 4, 8-K, 13-G, 13-D, S-3, S-3ASR etc. Postings in BLUE are economic data postings.

The notification sounds are no longer coming through the NewsDesk, how can I fix this?

There are several reasons why your sounds may have stopped. If you recently changed your sound settings you will need to wait for at least 3 news posts to come through before the sound returns. You may also be experiencing browser issues, we recommend trying Google Chrome or Internet Explorer. If you continue to experience issues with your sound please call us at (203)939-1250.

SQUAWK AUDIO

Once I log into the TX Squawk Audio, do I need to keep the window up on my monitor to be able to hear the Squawk Audio alerts?

No! Once you log into the Squawk Audio, you may simply check the speaker volume, then you can minimize the window, saving valuable screen space. The sound will still come through your speakers even with the window minimized.
